The Tidewater Group

of Davenport & Company LLC

Pete Reuss, AAMS®

Managing Director

Pete joined Davenport in October 2021 after 26 years with Truist Investment Services, formerly BB&T Scott & Stringfellow. With his training in mathematics and education, Pete takes equal pleasure in finding investment solutions and in sharing them with clients in a way that gives them the confidence they need to help achieve their financial goals.

A graduate of Virginia Tech, Pete earned his B.S. in Finance and Math and his M.A. in Education. He is Series 7, 31, 63 and 65 registered with FINRA and holds state variable life, health and annuity licenses. Pete earned the Accredited Asset Management Specialist SM professional designation, awarded by the College for Financial Planning.

Active in the community, Pete has served as board chair for The Noblemen as well as the Hilltop YMCA for the past 20 years. He created The Noblemen Toy Drive, Reason for the Season, and Golf Tournament for the organization. He also co-founded NobleTeens, an organization that creates a platform for kids to help kids. In his free time, Pete enjoys spending time with his family, playing golf and the drums, and volunteering in his community.

Cameron Reuss

Associate Financial Advisor

Cameron joined Davenport and The Tidewater Group as a trainee in October 2021 and became an Associate Financial Advisor in September 2022. He strives to help his clients make sure they can achieve long term goals such as putting their children through school and building successful retirement.

Cameron graduated in 2020 from Longwood University with a Bachelor's degree in Finance. He is Series 7 and 66 registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

Archeology is a passion of Cameron's and in 2017, he received the Ben C. McCary Award from the Archeological Society of Virginia for his findings during an Archeological dig. Active in the community, Cameron volunteers for The Nobleman. In his free time, he enjoys watching movies, playing volleyball and golf, keeping up with new archeological finds and technology, and spending time going for walks and playing fetch with his favorite companion, his dog Cleopatra.

Ed Bohnslav

Financial Consultant

Ed joined Davenport in October 2021 after more than eight years of experience as a financial advisor. Ed helps clients of The Tidewater Group with financial planning, legacy protection, retirement income, and tax minimization strategies. He also assists the group with determining the most appropriate investment strategies for clients.

Ed earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and is Series 7 and 66 registered with FINRA. Born and raised in Virginia Beach, Ed now resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Martina, and their four children. In his free time, he is actively involved in the alumni programs of the University of Virginia and donates his time to several charitable organizations.

Debbie Plunkett

Vice President, Business Development Officer

Debbie joined Davenport in October 2021 after more than 23 years at Truist Investment Services, formerly BB&T Scott & Stringfellow. Using 30 years of industry experience, Debbie leads The Tidewater Group's business development initiatives and goals-based financial planning process. She holds her Series 7 registration with FINRA and is committed to helping make clients' financial lives less complicated.

Debbie likes to stay active in the community. She has volunteered with the Noblemen for many years and has served as a board member with the Princess Anne YMCA since its inception. She has also volunteered as the team captain and organized many BB&T Lighthouse community events with local nonprofits.

She resides in Virginia Beach with her son, Nolan, and their black Lab, Bodie. She loves to travel, especially when beaches or skiing are involved, and she enjoys spending time with family and friends.

Rebecca "Becky" Maxwell-Scott

Associate Vice President, Registered Client Service Associate

Becky joined Davenport in October 2021 after more than 15 years at Truist Investment Services, formerly BB&T Scott & Stringfellow. Becky focuses on providing outstanding client service and team administrative support. She gets to know the team's clients well from the beginning of each relationship, handling account setup processes, transfers and getting clients acclimated.

Becky resides in Virginia Beach with her son, Paul, and two cats, Tigger and Amber Rose. She enjoys spending time with family and friends and her favorite activities include fishing, camping, NASCAR racing, listening to music, and gardening.
