

National Day of Mourning

On Thursday, January 9, the financial markets will observe a National Day of Mourning in honor of former President Jimmy Carter. In recognition of his service to our country, the stock market will be closed for the day.

Davenport's Limited Hours and Operations

Despite the stock market closure, Davenport's offices will be open from 8:45 a.m. until 2:15 p.m. and limited services, including fixed income trading and money movement, will be provided.

Fixed Income Trading

We will assist with fixed income trading activities, managing bond portfolios, and executing e-trades in open markets.

Money Movement Services

We will offer money movement services, including:

- Deposits
- Check Requests
- ACH Transfers
- Wire Transfers

Reflecting on President Carter's Legacy

As we observe this day, it is important to reflect on President Carter's legacy in peace, human rights, and public service. Click here to read the official proclamation from The White House.

As we honor President Carter, we are committed to ensuring your financial needs are met during this time of reflection. Thank you for trusting Davenport with your financial goals. We look forward to serving you during this period.
