of Davenport & Company LLC

Hylah B. Ballowe

Managing Director

Hylah Ballowe has been an investment professional for more than 25 years, beginning her career with what is now BB&T Scott & Stringfellow Securities. She joined Davenport in 2000 after spending six years at her prior firm. She is a member of Davenport's Board of Directors. In 2007, Hylah was recognized by On Wall Street magazine as a "Top 40 Under 40" investment professional. She was also featured in the Winter 2018 edition of W&M Alumni Magazine.

Hylah graduated from The College of William and Mary with a B.A. in Government and she currently serves as a trustee on the school's Foundation Board. She is Series 7, 63, 65, and 24 registered and is licensed to sell insurance.

An active member of the community, Hylah has held both officer and director positions at Richmond's cultural landmark, Maymont, an American Estate. She and her husband, Greg, have two children, John and Virginia.

Moncure Geho

Managing Director

Moncure Geho has more than 28 years of private banking, commercial lending, and asset management experience. His financial background combines well with his team's investment knowledge to provide clients with a disciplined investment approach and the highest level of professional advice. As a former portfolio manager, he brings strength in structuring portfolios, asset allocation and risk management. He is a member of Davenport's Board of Directors.

Moncure is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College with a B.A. in Economics. He is Series 7, 63, 65, and 24 registered and is licensed to sell insurance. He and his wife Linda have three children, Harrison Jr., Berkeley and Charles.

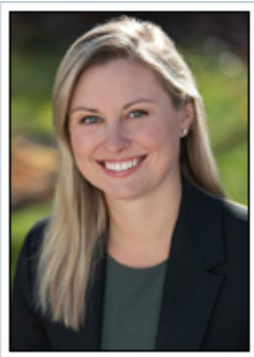

Stewart Roddey

Senior Vice President - Investments

Stewart joined Davenport in 2002. He brings a diverse background of sales, finance and business ownership experience to Ballowe Geho Roddey. Before joining the group, Stewart was one of the earliest members of Davenport's Institutional Equities Sales department where he worked with some of New York's most sophisticated hedge funds and money managers. Stewart is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is Series 7, 63 and 66 registered and is licensed to sell insurance.

Stewart is a past member of the Board of Trustees at Virginia Episcopal School, a college preparatory, independent boarding and day school. He and his wife, Sally, have two children, Stewart Jr. and Helen.

Hunter Ross Gottwald, CFP®

Vice President - Investments

Hunter joined Davenport in 2013. Prior to working with the Ballowe Geho Roddey Group, she was an analyst in the firm's Public Finance department. Hunter utilizes her background in finance to aid the team in providing investment services. She is Series 7 and 66 registered and is licensed to sell insurance. She received the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® designation from the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc.

Hunter earned a B.S. in Finance from Wake Forest University, where she was a member of the women's golf team. Active in the community, Hunter serves on the Board of Directors for the First Tee of Greater Richmond. She has previously served on the board of Make-A-Wish Greater Virginia and was a 2019 W.I.S.H Circle honoree. In her spare time, Hunter enjoys golf, hunting, and fishing.
