

Moncure Geho

Managing Director

Moncure Geho has more than 28 years of private banking, commercial lending, and asset management experience. His financial background combines well with his team's investment knowledge to provide clients with a disciplined investment approach and the highest level of professional advice. As a former portfolio manager, he brings strength in structuring portfolios, asset allocation and risk management. He is a member of Davenport's Board of Directors.

Moncure is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College with a B.A. in Economics. He is Series 7, 63, 65, and 24 registered and is licensed to sell insurance. He and his wife Linda have three children, Harrison Jr., Berkeley and Charles.