

Alison B. Foley

Vice President - Investments

Alison focuses on helping individuals and families plan for a secure retirement. As the daughter of two entrepreneurs, Alison is passionate about working with small business owners and non-profit organizations to build financial road maps for both their current business needs and legacy planning. Alison joined Davenport & Company in a sales support role in 2007 and transitioned to a Financial Advisor in 2011.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Alison earned Bachelor of Arts degrees in Spanish and anthropology. She is Series 7 and 66 registered with FINRA. She is also licensed to offer life, long-term care and disability insurance and annuities.

Deeply committed to her community, Alison currently serves on the endowment committee of her church and on the Peake Childhood Center Board of Directors. She has also previously served terms as the treasurer for Peake Childhood Center, as a board member of the Early Childhood Music School in Williamsburg, and as a finance committee member of the Williamsburg Parents' Co-operative Preschool. After 10 years of active service with the Junior League of Hampton Roads, including multiple terms on its Board of Directors, she is now a proud sustaining member. In her free time, Alison enjoys traveling, reading, yoga, and spending time with her husband Jake and their two children.
